Deborah Dillane

Organist

Deborah Dillane (Deb) has served as a church musician for more than 50 years. She retired in 2020 from Christ Lutheran Church in Elizabethtown after 24 years, directing 6 choirs and playing the organ for all services. She worked for 14 years as a music instructor at Milton Hershey School. Throughout her career she has taught piano and organ students and accompanied soloists and choirs throughout the region. She was the accompanist for 4 international choir tours, under the leadership of Pierce Getz. She is currently a member of the Harrisburg American Guild of Organists where she serves on the board. She and her husband, Bob, enjoy traveling in their retirement.
