First Sunday of Lent

10:30 a.m.

Lent 2023: Water in the Wilderness

O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you, my body longs for you, in a dry and weary land where there is no water. — Psalm 63:1

The Judean Desert

*Hymn 618

O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High

*Prayer of Approach

Hope is the inheritance you gift to us, God our trust, so we might discover that when we are tempted we may call out to you for help; that even when we stumble during our journey, we are carried in your hands. Grace is the inheritance you share with us, Jesus, Brother of strangers, not that we might hoard it for ourselves and loved ones only, but we would be willing to be generous to all we meet, making no distinction when it comes to our sisters and brothers. Peace is the inheritance we receive from you, Spirit of salvation, not that we might settle in and claim it only for a special few, but that we might turn it into that place of refuge for all, where mercy and hope flow into each person's life. All that we have is an inheritance from you, God in Community, Holy in One, blessings to receive and share with all; through Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

Children's Message

The Rev. Nancy Conklin

(After the message, preschool and elementary-age children are invited to follow volunteers to the Little Kirk for an age-appropriate worship experience.)

"Test the Waters"

The Rev. Stuart Seelman

*Hymn 783

When We Are Tested

Presentation of God's Tithes and Our Offerings

Offertory

On My Heart Imprint Your Image
Janice Mills, guest organist

Paul Kickstat

*Doxology (Tune: "Old Hundredth")

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
Amen.*

*Prayer of Dedication

From a laptop and a daycare center, from retirement and teaching, from courtroom and nursing, from all the places where we derive a living, we offer you our gifts, God of grace, so they might become part of all the fruits of hope and healing, of peace and patience, which you give to others throughout the world. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*Hymn 213

In the Cross of Christ I Glory

*Extinguishing of the Lenten Candles

- L: Today is the first Sunday in the Season of Lent. This season offers us the opportunity to be more reflective as we journey together with Jesus through the wilderness and beyond.
- P: As followers of Jesus, we have all experienced times of testing and temptation — times we have felt that we were travelling in the wilderness.
- L: As people of faith, we confess that in the face of difficult decisions we are sometimes drawn to easy answers and actions that do not demand much of us.
- P: As we extinguish the first Lenten candle, we recall the ways in which we struggle to embody our faith in the actions of our lives.
(Extinguishing of one Lenten candle.)
- L: As we watch the smoke rise, we remember that God's spirit is with us in mysterious and tangible ways. We are reminded that God comforts, encourages, and supports us as we face the challenges of following the Way of Jesus.
- P: May the blessing of our God, Jesus our Savior, and the Holy Spirit be upon us.
