Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

10:30 a.m.

Welcome!

We are glad you are worshipping with us today.

Childcare is available in Room 1 of the Kuhn Education Wing. We also invite children to use our activity area in the sanctuary, or to help themselves to drawing packets (located on the windowsill by our greeting area).

The flowers this morning are dedicated to the glory of God in memory of loved ones by the Bentzel family.

Worship begins with the first note of the prelude – may we silence our voices and open our hearts, allowing the music to draw us together into the presence of God.

*Call to Worship

L: Let us rejoice, for morning has dawned. A new day has been born, and we are newly alive to enjoy it.

P: We know the beauty of God's creation and the wonder of human family.

L: We gather in our church to worship our Living God, to share prayers and gifts, to pledge ourselves to God's work in the world.

**Those who are able are asked to please stand.*

P: May God bless us, so that what we do in this time together may be honest, sacred, and filled with hope.

L: Let us worship God!

*Hymn 625

How Great Thou Art

*Prayer of Invocation

Creator, Redeemer, and Spirit of all holiness, be in our midst with your baptism of power and your communion of love. We wait upon you in stillness and patience, because you turn strength into weakness and weakness into strength. In the moments of victory and joy, you do lift us up on wings of flight. In the days of routine and duty, you enable us to run a sure course without weariness or collapse. In the hours of pain and fear, in the times of trial, in the nights of grief and death, you help us walk, hand held and step steadied, so that we do not faint. You are our God, and we are your people. Amen.

First Scripture Reading (OT, p. 709)

Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

L: This is the word of the Lord.

Sermon

The Rev. Nancy Conklin

Affirmation of Faith (from the Iona Community)

We believe in God, whose love is the source of all life and the desire of our lives; whose love was given a human face in Jesus of Nazareth; whose love was crucified by the evil that waits to enslave us all; and, whose love, defeating even death, is our glorious promise of freedom. Therefore, though we are sometimes fearful and full of doubt, in God we trust, and in the name of Jesus Christ, we commit ourselves, in the service of others, to seek justice and to live in peace; to care for the earth and to share the commonwealth of God's goodness; to live in the freedom of forgiveness, and in the power of the spirit of love, and in the company of the faithful; so to be the church for the glory of God. Amen.

*Hymn 727

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
Amen.*

*Prayer of Dedication

Holy One, whose heart abounds with gift, receive this offering as a sign of our intention to live surrounded by your mercy, inspired by your Spirit, open to the joy of your presence, hospitable to one another, and generous toward your world. Amen.

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
