Devoted to Christ – Committed to Service

We at Camp Hill Presbyterian Church are devoted followers of Jesus Christ, committed to service in His name through worship, study, prayer, and praise; through mission to the world near and far; and through ministries of care and comfort to all.

Trinity Sunday

Why Do We Sing What We Sing?

Music is an agreeable harmony for the honor of God and the permissible delights of the soul.

— Johann Sebastian Bach

For our primitive ancestors, music was intrinsic to life. It was linked with birth, death, dancing, work, and worship. That remained true for our Hebrew ancestors as they began to see that God was active in their lives, delivering them from bondage to freedom. With Miriam and Moses, they “sang and danced to the Lord, for he had triumphed gloriously” (Exodus 15:20). When they became God’s chosen people guilds were formed to cultivate the law and music. From these guilds, David learned his musical craft. When the temple was built, the Psalms became their worship hymnal and as one music historian wrote, “the Psalms are the womb of church music.” In the Psalms we deal with the height and depth of human life, articulated in the most compelling way. We see our struggles against the backdrop of God’s goodness and mercy. We view the human drama in its savagery and kindness, in the specificity of our daily lives and the cosmic portions of life, in the call to treat one another justly and with mercy. Mostly, we come face to face with God. We bless God because God has done great things for us. The Psalms express the immensity and power of the song the church has to sing.

Welcome

Those who are able are asked to please stand.*

*Call to Worship (Psalm 95)

L: O Come let us sing to the Lord;

P: Let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our Salvation!

L: Let us come into God's presence with thanksgiving;

P: Let us make a joyful noise to God with songs of praise!

For the Music of Creation

*Reading of the Law

L: God spoke all these words, saying:

I am the Lord your God. You shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not bow down to them or worship them.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy.

Honor your father and your mother.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house; your neighbor's spouse, anything that belongs to your neighbor.

(Silent personal confession)

P: Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.

Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit.

L: The sacrifice acceptable to God is a contrite spirit. A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

*Gloria Patri

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be; world without end.
Amen, Amen.*

First Scripture Reading (insert)

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
