The Rev. Stuart L. Seelman, Associate Pastor

*After the dark comes the dawn,
after the storm comes the serenity,
after the sorrow comes the smile,
after the pain comes the promise,
after the hurt comes the healing,
after the aloneness comes the awareness,
after the separateness comes the surprise,
after the death comes the Resurrection,
because it's Easter!

Those who are able are asked to please stand.*

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Litany for New Life

- L: O God of Jesus Christ, who welcomed the company of the lowly in his labor for the holy,
- P: Grant us his spirit, who came into the world not to be served but to serve.
- L: O God of Jesus Christ, who rebuked the praise of the pious in his demand for justice,
- P: Grant us his spirit, who proclaimed the good news not only in word but in deed.
- L: O God of Jesus Christ, who braved the wrath of the mighty in his fidelity to the Almighty,
- P: Grant us his spirit, who was obedient not only in death but also in life.
- L: O God of Jesus Christ, who forgave the taunts of the scorers in his agony on Calvary,
- P: Grant us his spirit, who kindles belief not only in his disciples but also in his enemies.
- L: O God of Jesus Christ, who transformed the despair of his followers on Easter,
- P: Grant us his spirit, who was triumphant not only over death but also over sin.

Scripture Lesson

Luke 24:13-32

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

Offertory Hymn 240

Alleluia! Alleluia! Give Thanks

*Easter Doxology (Tune: "Old Hundredth")

*Praise God from whom all grace flows forth!
Praise Life, all creatures here on earth!
Praise Light, who guides us on our way!
Praise Love, who forms us day to day!
Amen.*

*Prayer of Dedication

We are an Easter people! We believe that faith can move mountains, and that caterpillars can be transformed into butterflies. We trust that with your grace present, even the smallest act of kindness, the shortest practice of goodness, or the slightest gesture of generosity can have significance well beyond all expectations. With that faith, we rise. With that faith, we are resurrected into new life. With that faith, we give, freely and joyfully. And so now we give, out of what we have, to bless those who have not, in order to bear witness to and inspire a spirit of resurrection, in ourselves and in others. Let us flitter and fly like butterflies on the wings of the Risen Christ, beautifying our lives and our world. Amen.

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
