Sixth Sunday After Epiphany

10:30 a.m.

Devoted to Christ – Committed to Service

We at Camp Hill Presbyterian Church are devoted followers of Jesus Christ committed to service in His name through worship, study, prayer, and praise; through mission to the world near and far; and through ministries of care and comfort to all.

Sixth Sunday After Epiphany

February 13, 2022, 10:30 a.m.

The Rev. Nancy A. Conklin, Pastor
The Rev. Stuart L. Seelman, Associate Pastor
Diane Rutzler, Substitute Organist

Worship begins with the first note of the prelude — may we silent our voices and open our hearts, allowing the music to draw us together into the presence of God.

*Call to Worship (From “Lectionary Liturgies”)

L: By God's grace, we are who we are:

P: People who are called, but afraid to follow.

L: By God's grace, we are who we are:

P: People who are called, and gifted with courage.

L: By God's grace, we are who we are:

P: People who are called, and given good news to share.

*Hymn 35

Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty

*Prayer of the Day

Holy God, by your grace:

You touch our fears with the fire of your compassion;

You touch our brokenness with the fire of your forgiveness;

You touch our hearts with the fire of your love.

Those who are able are asked to please stand.*

Jesus Christ, by your grace:

You step into our lives and an unpredictable journey begins;
You challenge us to new thinking, with overflowing results;
You so confront our doubts that we can cast out our fears.

Holy Spirit, by your grace:

You give us eyes to see the emptiness of our world;
You give us ears to hear the good news;
You give us words to bring hope to all people.

God in Community, Holy in One, by your grace we are who we are: your children, your people, your church, who lift our voices to the glory of your name ...

*Gloria (Taizé)

The musical notation is in 6/8 time with a tempo marking of quarter note = 80. It consists of two staves of music. The first staff contains phrases A and B, and the second staff contains phrases C and D. The lyrics are: "Glo - ri - a, glo - ri - a, in ex - cel - sis De - o!" on the first staff, and "Glo - ri - a, glo - ri - a, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!" on the second staff.

First Scripture Reading

Psalm 1

Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers; but their delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law they meditate day and night. They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; for the Lord watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

L: This is the word of the Lord.

P: Thanks be to God!

*Jesus Christ, the Apple Tree
The Chancel Choir
The tree of life my soul hath seen,
Laden with fruit and always green;
The trees of nature fruitless be,
Compared with Christ the Apple Tree.*

*His beauty doth all things excel,
By faith I know but ne'er can tell
The glory which I now can see,
In Jesus Christ the Apple Tree.*

*For happiness I long have sought,
And pleasure dearly I have bought;
I missed of all but now I see
'Tis found in Christ the Apple Tree.*

*I'm weary with my former toil —
Here I will sit and rest awhile,
Under the shadow I will be,
Of Jesus Christ the Apple Tree.*

*With great delight I'll make my stay,
There's none shall fright my soul away;
Among the sons of men I see
There's none like Christ the Apple Tree.*

*I'll sit and eat this fruit divine,
It cheers my heart like spirit'al wine;
And now this fruit is sweet to me,
That grows on Christ the Apple Tree.*

*This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be
With Jesus Christ the Apple Tree.*

Second Scripture Reading

Luke 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

L: This is the word of the Lord.

P: Thanks be to God!

*Doxology (Tune: "Old Hundredth")

*O God, may we who bear your name
By gentle love your grace proclaim,
Christ's gift of peace on earth declare
And your anointing Spirit share. Amen.*

*Prayer of Dedication

From out of the abundance of our lives, O God, we offer these gifts that they might bring forth an abundance of life and joy to those in need, through Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
